This map illustrates the Logan Neighborhood Historic District in Concord, Cabarrus, North Carolina. The district's boundary is marked by a thick black line. Within this boundary, individual lots are depicted and categorized by their historical significance: white for Contributing Resources, light gray for Non-Contributing Resources, and dark gray for Vacant Lots. Lot numbers are printed on each lot, often with a small circle around the number. The map includes a network of streets such as Cabarrus Avenue West, Bell Street Southwest, Corban Avenue Southwest, Georgia Street Southwest, James Street Southwest, Young Avenue Southwest, Ring Avenue Southwest, Cline Court Southwest, Chestnut Drive Southwest, Princess Avenue Southwest, Edwards Avenue Southwest, and various other local streets. A legend in the top right corner defines the symbols used for the district boundary, resource status, and photo locations. A north arrow and a scale bar (0 to 300 feet) are also provided. Numerous numbered circles (e.g., 02, 03, 08, 09, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25) are placed throughout the map, indicating specific photo locations and their directions. The map shows a dense arrangement of lots, particularly in the central and southern portions of the district.
